Complicated if child has to go back for uniform if still in PE kit. Also wonder about how to build my son's independence after school as he moves up the school. I would like him to have experience of walking out of school to meet me. This would help transition to 2dry eventually.

Seems to be a long gap between parents evenings - is there just one a year then end of year report? Could there be a parents eve near end of 2nd term (if there isn't one sorry I can't remember)?
